It's a boring day for Lily. It's raining outside.

Lily stays at home with her grandmother. Her grandmother is cooking. She wants to make a fruit salad first. Lily would like to go outside and play football with her friends. "Grandma, how can I make the sun come out?" she asks.

"When you see a rainbow(彩虹), the rain will stop soon," Grandma smiles.

Lily looks up, but there is no rainbow in the sky. Then she has an idea! She can draw a rainbow, and then the sun can come out and drive away the clouds.

Lily gets busy. Her grandmother tells her the colours of a rainbow to help her get it right.

It takes Lily 20 minutes to finish drawing the rainbow. She holds her picture up to the window. But it doesn't work.

Some time later, Lily starts to put her picture back into the box. Just then, she looks out of the window and sees a real rainbow in the sky.

Lily tells the exciting news to her grandma. Grandma is still cooking, but she is happy for Lily.
